

HALTON
PARISH COUNCIL

CO-OPTION POLICY

REVIEW AND AMENDMENT RECORD

Reviewer / Amender	Date	Amendments
Full Council	24 May 2023	Adopted
Full Council	22 Jan 2025	Approved

1. Introduction

Co-option is the process which is followed if a vacancy occurs on the Council through the resignation, disqualification or death of a councillor during their term of office, where, following statutory notice of the vacancy, the electorate do not request that a poll (by-election) is held.

The co-option procedure can also be used if, following the close of nominations for a full parish council election, there are vacancies (i.e. not enough candidates have put themselves forward for the number of seats available to be filled).

This policy and its procedure will be applied when a vacancy as described above is required to be filled.

In between elections this policy will be followed by the Clerk, any other relevant employees, all councillors and prospective candidates.

2. Advertising the Vacancy

Upon notification from Buckinghamshire Council Electoral Services that no elector poll has been requested and that a vacancy is eligible to be filled by co-option, the notification of the vacancy will be advertised.

Candidates will be invited to submit information about themselves by a specified date by way of completing a short application form which includes a personal statement explaining the reasons for seeking to become a parish councillor. (Appendix 1)

The opportunity to respond to the advertisement will be open until the vacancy is filled.

Copies of the application form and personal statement will be circulated to Council for consideration.

3. Co-Option Meeting

The co-option will be an agenda item at the next Council meeting.

If there is more than one candidate, they will be invited to say something about themselves at the Council meeting, and the Council will have the opportunity to ask questions of the candidates. Each candidate will be allocated three minutes.

The Chair will offer opportunity for debate. In most cases, the candidates will be asked to leave the room while this process takes place.

The Chair will ask the councillors present to nominate any of the candidates. Candidates will require a proposer and seconder to progress to the voting stage.

If there is only one vacancy, a councillor may only nominate or second one candidate.

The Chair shall then move to a vote, presenting each candidate in surname alphabetical order.

The voting process will be that laid down in Standing Order 3s and 8 below. To be co-opted onto the Council, the candidate must receive an absolute majority of the votes of those present and voting (that is more than half of the total votes cast.)

3s. Unless standing orders provide otherwise, voting on a question shall be by a show of hands or, if at least two members request, by signed ballot. At the request of a councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.

8. Voting on Appointments:

Where more than two persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the Council and none of those persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. A tie in votes may be settled by the casting vote exercisable by the Chair of the meeting.

The Council's debate and vote on the co-option must be conducted in the public section of the meeting.

After the vote has been taken, the Chair will declare the candidate(s) who received the highest number of votes duly elected.

If the person(s) elected are present, they may join the meeting and sign an acceptance of office form in the presence of the Proper Officer.

4. After the Meeting

Successful candidates will be provided with a councillor induction pack by the Clerk and informed of new councillor training opportunities offered by Buckinghamshire & Milton Keynes Association of Local Councils.

The Clerk will notify Buckinghamshire Council Electoral Services of the new councillor appointment.

If no one accepts the vacant post(s) the whole process will be repeated when new individuals expressing interest are identified or until the next election.
